

APPLICATION FOR AN OLYMPIAD

of the International Federation of Popular Sports (IVV)

by resolution of the Congress of Delegates in Rio de Janeiro/Brazil on 25th November, 2016

§ 1

General

1. The IVV popular sports Olympiad takes place every 2 years – namely in the odd numbered years.
2. The IVV popular sports Olympiad may not last longer than 4 days.
3. Only a country that has already been an IVV member for at least 5 years and whose clubs regularly organize events may organize an Olympiad.
4. The IVV Presidium can appoint an Olympiad representative.

§ 2

The Awarding Procedure

1. The selection for awarding the popular sports Olympiad will be made during the IVV Congress of Delegates 3 years ahead of the event.
2. Prior to selection of awarding the popular sports Olympiad and 4 years ahead of the respective event, an official announcement will be made by the IVV Presidium. The ultimate time limit for a written application to the IVV Head Office is 6 months prior to the IVV Congress of Delegates at the latest.
3. The written application has to include the following:
  - a) The name of the organizing country and hosting city.
  - b) The name of the location or locations for the Olympiad as well as the Olympiad center.
  - c) The name of the local organisation committee and its chairman as well as contact persons for the IVV Presidium. Can be handed in at a later date, one year before the event at the latest.

- d) A signed document of the hosting member country stating that they will organize the event and keep to the IVV statutes as well as give a financial guarantee for the event.
  - e) The date and duration of the Olympiad including preliminary time schedule.
4. The IVV Presidium will do a preliminary check on the presented applications for completeness and is entitled to ask for missing or additional documentation of the applicant and give a written deadline. If the records are not complete, the IVV Presidium can reject the application.
  5. If, for any reason, an application is denied, the Arbitration Board can be convened verbally or in written form prior to voting. The Arbitration Board's decision is mandatory.
  6. Prior to voting on awarding the Olympiad, each applicant has the right to introduce the application in any form. The present and elected members of the meeting have the right to ask the applicant or applicants questions.
  7. During voting, the rules of the statutes and the standing orders have to be followed.
  8. In case the elected host city is unable, for whatever reason, to organize the popular sports Olympiad in the designated year, the rights of the host city will be annulled and a new awarding will be made.

§ 3

Contract Conclusion

1. The IVV negotiates a written contract with the elected host city and the national member association, which states the obligations of the organizer in detail.
2. By signing the contract a license fee becomes due (currently 5,000 €). This fee has to be transferred to the IVV account by 1st April of the year prior to the Olympiad. Partial payments are possible on appointment.
3. The host can hand in an advertisement for the IVV Website to announce the Olympiad.
4. In case of violation or breach of contract, the IVV Presidium can at any time relieve the organisation of the IVV popular sports Olympiad, effective immediately. This will be done without precedent and without right for compensation for the elected host city and the national member association. The IVV is entitled to charge generated expenses.

5. The IVV Presidium is responsible for specifying the tasks and duties of the Olympiad host.
